

Topics Covered at DOES 2024

Executive leaders from organizations that serve the Deaf and Hard of Hearing community at DOES 2024 will have candid, peer-driven discussions on these critical issues:

1. Adaptive Leadership in Transformative Times

- Navigate seismic shifts in our community with agility and vision
- Co-create innovative strategies to turn challenges into opportunities

2. Strategic Growth and Financial Resilience

- Uncover emerging and trending funding streams and sustainable growth models
- Share experiences and ideas on resource allocation strategies for maximum impact

3. Attracting and Retaining Top Talent

- Discuss how each executive handles their industry-specific labor challenges
- Exchange proven tactics for building high-performing, engaged teams

4. DEIAB Mastery: From Commitment to Culture

- Elevate your approach to diversity, equity, inclusion, accessibility, and belonging
- Craft actionable strategies to meet the evolving needs of diverse communities

5. Crisis Leadership and Conflict Resolution

- Develop your crisis management playbook through real-world scenario planning
- Support each other's high-stakes community engagement and conflict-resolution skills

6. Strategic Partnerships and Cross-Sector Alliances

- Identify partnership opportunities with peers and adjacent industries that pivots your trajectory
- Design collaborative initiatives that amplify your organization's mission and reach

These executive topics will be explored through facilitated, peer-to-peer discussions and interactive problem-solving sessions. DOES 2024 offers a unique platform for candid exchanges among leaders and executives. Join us to shape your leadership of the future of organizations that serve the Deaf, DeafBlind, and Hard of Hearing communities.